Harbour annual report

The harbour handled more vessels this year than in any year before it.

Most of the growth came from smaller cargo ships on the coastal route.

Outlook

Next year we expect steady growth, with two new berths opening in spring.

The board thanks every crew that worked through the winter storms.